NOTICE OF MEETING

Manoa Improvement Club.

A meeting of the Manoa Improvement Club will be held at the residence of Judge H. E. Cooper, Puupueo, Manoa Valley, on Tuesday evening, December 14, 1909, at 7:30 o'clock.

S. DE FREEST,
Secretary.

NEVER has the demand for lace been as great as it is right now.

And never has it been so necessary that women realize that the only safe way to wash laces is with Ivory Soap and lukewarm water.

Why Ivory Soap? Because it contains no "free" alkali; no coloring matter; no adulterant of any kind.

Ivory Soap
99<sup>44</sup>/<sub>100</sub> Per Cent. Pure

BUSINESS LOCALS.

If you wish to reclaim submerged lands or have any surveying done, consult Robert A. Kubillus, in the Waity building.

Toys at Kerr's marked in plain figures.

Have your typewriter cleaned and repaired at Wall, Nichols Company, Ltd. They have a repairer whose work is guaranteed.

The person who lost a gold watch and fob last week may learn of its whereabouts by reading the classified column this morning.

Call at Brown & Lyon Co. this week and see the splendid assortment of books for the holidays. Books in sets sold on the easy monthly-payment plan.

See the fine assortment of boys' reefers and boys' blouse suits with knickerbockers sold at Silva's Toggery. The patterns are very attractive and the material all wool.

Big reductions on Japanese blue and white cotton rugs from now until Christmas at Lewers & Cooke. Consult price list in this issue. One of these rugs will make a fine Christmas gift.

The sale of beautifully-trimmed and untrimmed hats which K. Uyeda, 1028 Nuuanu avenue, is holding is an opportunity for the ladies of Honolulu to get the prettiest of millinery at a very low price.

The adjourned annual meeting of the stockholders of the Kilauea Volcano House Company will be held at the Inter-Island Steam Navigation Company's office next Monday afternoon at four o'clock.

There's no better place than Kerr's to buy for Christmas.

Men who want some particularly nice clothes for the holidays should see the English and American suitings at the W. W. Ahana Company, 62 South King street. The Ahana company's ability to fit is well known.

When naming the executor in your will, consider whether one individual will be able to carry out your wishes as satisfactorily as would the Hawaiian Trust Company, Ltd., with its board of directors and staff.

The average house servant aims to get through work early and to do so seeks the soap that does the most work in the shortest time. Pau ka Hanā is the brand most in demand. If your grocer does not sell it, notify Fred L. Waldron; telephone 12.

Messrs. Leitch and Woodward advertise their soda water in this issue. Both gentlemen have been years in the business and they fully understand it. They know how to produce the liveliest, snappiest soda, and it is the quality they will put into the homes of Honolulu people for the holidays and any other season.

Wagons at Kerr's; good ones.

LOCAL BREVITIES.

The Asia will dock at the Oceanic wharf today instead of at the Hackfeld wharf.

Maria N. Simerson's suit against William K. Simerson by guardian has been submitted to the territorial supreme court on agreed facts.

Captain Fetter if Hilo has received a notification from Major Dunning of the Twentieth Infantry to the effect that his company will be inspected by that officer some time during February.

Owing to the continued expansion of business of the Henry Waterhouse Trust Company, a room in the second story of the Campbell block is to be leased and used as a directors' meeting room.

The board of supervisors yesterday held a meeting to pass the payrolls that have been completed since its last meeting. No other business, with the exception of second readings of several resolutions, came up.

Judge Andrade has decided in the favor of James Harrub in his suit against the H. R. T. & L. Co. awarding him $150. Harrub's automobile was run into at Pawan junction some time ago and he asked for $300 damages.

The trustees of the Liliuokalani Estate have donated to the Roman Catholic church at Waikiki a wide strip of land. It will be used as an entrance from Kalakaua avenue and will be a great convenience to the members of the congregation.

The members of the chamber of commerce will meet Wednesday in the chamber's rooms in the Stangenwald building. This is the regular bimonthly meeting and will be the first that President Morgan has attended since he returned from the Coast.

The bridge over the Hakalau gulch, when completed, will have a span of 800 feet and height of 150 at its middle arch. This will make it the longest and highest bridge on the Islands. It is not expected that work will commence on it for two years.

Anthony Richley is in receipt of a letter from the department of state, saying that there has been no official correspondence between the American and British embassies over the Cook monument session, confirming other reports received here to the same effect.

The Kilohana Art League will hold an informal reception next Saturday at its quarters to introduce Miss Julie E. Raymond of Brooklyn. Miss Raymond is exhibiting water colors of northern and southern Californian scenes. The reception will be held from eight to ten.

Lum Chow walked into the house of George Holt on the Asylum road last Sunday night and threatened to carve the inhabitants thereof. It developed that Lum Chow is slightly off as regards his mentality and he has in consequence been confined in the same institution occupied by others in his class.

At a meeting held last week by the Lei Aloha Chapter of the O. E. S. No. 3, the following officers were elected: Sister Blaisdell, worthy matron; Brother Barry, worthy matron; Sister Lishman, associate matron; Sister Howard, secretary; Sister Barry, treasurer; Sister Southernland, conductress and Sister McAllister, associate conductress.

Radical changes are being made in the old offices of W. G. Irwin & Co. A new concrete vault has been built in the freight office. Charles Bridges, road foreman at Lāie, this island, has been accused by several of the laborers under him of forcing them to buy poi and pork from him. The mayor and others have been looking into the matter and have decided that the complaint was the result of spite as the foreman had reported the men for fishing with dynamite. Although it is thought that such transactions have been going on, it is apart from county work and the laborers get their money's worth.
